Philatelic Literature Postal Auction Sales

NEW TERMS OF SALE

CONDITIONS UPON WHICH BIDS ARE ACCEPTED IN THESE SALES

Each lot is put up for sale with a stated starting price which is in effect the vendor's reserve. Any bids below this starting price in the sale will not be accepted. For six weeks after the sale has closed, some lots may be available at a lower figure, but not less than 80% of the stated starting price. There are very few exceptions to this rule, and it is usually not worth making any offer lower than this figure. The starting prices are about 80% of the the prices the lots are expected to realise, based on experience of our sales.

The bidding & advances shall be at the sole discretion of the Auctioneer, who shall have the right to refuse any bid. All starting prices, bids & charges are expressed in Pounds Sterling. Please note that unlike stamp sales, some lots are available in more than single copies, and they will be sold, where suitable, at one bid above the highest unsuccessful bid.

"BUY" bids are only accepted at the Auctioneer's discretion. They will normally be treated as being FIVE TIMES THE STARTING PRICE. This means that a higher bid may be attained, and does NOT guarantee the purchase of the lot.

BIDS ARE HELD TO BE BINDING. An auction is not an approval service, and items may only be returned if they are not as described in the catalogue. Lots on offer are understood to be in good condition, except where otherwise described, but account must be taken of the age of some items, necessarily affecting their condition, and any return can only be accepted when there is reasonable grounds for such action. Postage is payable by the buyer, also registration or private insurance plus packing charges where appropriate.

We respectfully request that each lot is paid for as soon as possible, but within twenty one days of the invoice date by a UK buyer, or similarly thirty days by an overseas buyer, unless an alternative arrangement has been made. All lots become the responsibility of the buyer at the point of sale, unless negligence be proved on the part of the Vendor or his agents.

THE SUBMISSION OF A BID IN THIS SALE WILL INDICATE AND BE TAKEN AS FULL LEGAL ACCEPTANCE OF THESE CONDITIONS.

Payments should be made in pounds sterling where possible, by cheque drawn on a British Bank, or by Bank draft. Payment may be made in US dollars, but please add an extra 20 dollars (for cheques) or 15 dollars (for banknotes) to defray the bank costs. Please note that we cannot accept payment in dollar cheques under $50, on account of the disproportionately high bank charges. Currently we can accept payment in Euro banknotes, but not Euro cheques.

Please note that we are no longer able to accept Credit Cards but are happy to accept PayPal.

Introduction to Sale No 162 closing date Saturday 11 September 2010 at midnight

This is the first postal auction sale we have held for well over a year, and it may possibly be the last one we have.

Market activity forces us to change the way in which we sell our stock and vendors' material. For several years the postal auctions have proved to be uneconomical, sometimes resulting in a loss to the Company, and at best breaking even, and this has been made worse by the effects of the current recession. Much of our business is now done through the Internet and of course through eBay, which is how collectors now seem to wish to place their bidding and purchasing, rather than the old fashioned way of bidding in a postal auction. Indeed we have noted that many customers who used to bid regularly on our sales, when we held them, had stopped doing so, but bid quite regularly through our eBay site. There are certainly times when a buyer could have called us to enquire about a title which we could have supplied off the shelf, but has preferred to bid via the Internet, often thus paying more for it by virtue of other bidders.

We have not finally decided whether we shall continue to have the odd postal sale, perhaps one or two per year, but we hope you will find that this one has the usual good variety of material, with the customary smattering of rare items. Contained in it is the stock from a substantial Philatelic Society library, another trend which we have noted over the last decade, whereby Societies divest themselves of their libraries, since the membership no longer use them, as they have their own selection, geared to their particular interests, and often quite large sums are tied up in these unused Society assets.

Many lots are marked 'ex library' indicating that they came from the Society Library but almost all are in very good or excellent condition; any faults being thus marked.

Earlier in the year we had a new website designed for us which is progressing rapidly and attracting a satisfying response. This is basically designed as a shop, into which we are slowly entering our many thousands of philatelic titles, all subdivided in groups and sub-groups. Most people seem to have found no difficulty with the workings of the site, and the few teething troubles we had at the beginning have now been rectified. Please do go to www.hhsales.co.uk to view the material there already. We add many new titles each week. We are also continuing with our very active eBay shop, which can be found at www.stores.eBay.co.uk/HH-Sales.

Please note that with the rise of PayPal which most people on the Internet now seem to use, we are no longer able to take any credit or charge cards. It came to a stage when the credit card companies were charging us a monthly fee for not using their services enough, a good example of current banking ethics, and we thus advised them what to do with their services. We understand that you can make a payment via PayPal if you do not have an account with them, by registering there and using your credit card.

As usual, please send us your bids for this auction as soon as possible, by e-mail, fax, telephone or post. There are strong sections of GB, France, Germany & Journals and we hope you can find something of interest in this sale.

Sale No 162

This is a postal auction sale

closing date Saturday 11 September 2010 at midnight

Normally all books are hardback unless stated (excluding journals, articles and leaflets or auction catalogues) and are in average to good condition for their age. 'Ex Library' in this sale normally refers to a small handstamp from a Philatelic Society and in most cases this does not detract.

The Franco-Prussian War 1870-71,

Considered by the compiler of this catalogue to be the most interesting and multi-faceted period of postal history in all philately, full of firsts and unique postal events. A very large literature exists and we list a number of the classic works here. We also usually hold quite a good stock of non-philatelic works on the period. Why not start a new interest - but perhaps save up first!
